

Iowa County Conservation - Conservation Education School Programs: 2023-2024

Please note that the grades are suggested ages for the program, most programs can be adjusted for a similar age group. If you are interested in an unlisted program topic, please let me know. I can work with you to develop another program!

Mary Blair, Naturalist, Iowa County Conservation, 2550 G Ave, Ladora, IA 52251
Office: (319) 655-8466 Email: mblair@iowacounty.iowa.gov

Special Programs

Atlatl
Monarch Migration
Snowshoe Hike
Archery
Bison in Iowa

Preschool

Tails & Furry Animals
Bear Snores On
Insects
Prairie Adventure
Snow Explorers
Woodland Walk

Kindergarten

Talking Turkeys
Salamanders
Feathers for Lunch
Wild and Tame
Everyone Needs a Rock
Wacky Weather
Habitat Hunt
Terrific Trees

First Grade

Nocturnal Animals
Critter Litter
Squirrels and Acorns
First Americans
Animals in Winter
Spring Tree Trek
Is it Living?
Animal Olympics
Pollinators

Second Grade

Magnificent Monarchs
Spiders
Bats
Pioneers
Skull Detectives
Sneaky Seeds
Frogs and Toads
Pond Study
What's that Critter?

Third Grade

Composting
Turtles
Owls
Water Cycles
Recycling and Reduction
Bird Behaviors
Rotten Log Exploration
Food Chains

Fourth Grade

Eagles
Snakes
Renewable or Not
Winter Animal Tracking
How Many Coyotes?
Threatened and Endangered
Wildflower Walk
Amazing Animals

Fifth Grade

Wickiup Investigation
Animal Tracks
Fish Iowa
Who Dirtied the Water?
Soil Investigation
Orienteering
Energy Cycles

Sixth Grade and Up

Canoeing/Kayaking
Prairie Surveying
Basic Winter Survival
Water Quality Testing
Instincts for Survival (Predator/Prey)
GPS Basics/Geocaching